

DECLARATION OF SECONDARY USES OF PRESS CONTENT

Be careful : this declaration only concerns :

- Belgian French- and German-speaking daily newspaper press content,
- Belgian magazine and free press content,
- French newspaper press content,
- Luxembourger newspaper press content.

Please complete this form in CAPITAL LETTERS

IMPORTANT :

This declaration on your honor of secondary uses¹ of press content (articles, pictures of any kind published in a newspaper) from the repertoire² of Copiepresse and Repropress made by your company/institution/organisation in 2017 must be filled out, even if no press content where reused within this period. We will not interpret a lack of declaration as a non-use of press content declaration. Any false or incomplete declaration will be considered as an infringement to copyright law and will lead to the necessary proceedings. Moreover, this declaration can be the object of necessary checks.

This declaration is annual.

If need be, this declaration will allow us to draw up the invoice concerning the copyright owed for the secondary uses³ of press contents by your company/institution/organisation. The objective of this declaration is to regularise potential illegal copies of our copyrighted works as fast as possible.

Watch out : this declaration must be filled in by an authorised person and is considered as final. By filling in this document, you are approving its content fully and unconditionally and you will not be able to contest it later on.

The personal data shared in this document will be processed in accordance with our privacy policy (you may find our general terms on our websites).

¹ Secondary uses are all the uses which have to be authorized specifically and beforehand by Copiepresse or Repropress, copyright management companies formed by the publishers of Belgian French- and German-speaking daily newspapers and the publishers of Belgian magazines respectively. This includes among others: the implementation of an electronic press review, the electronic reproduction or the scanning of press content in order to constitute a database or to spread them on the Internet, an Intranet or Extranet, their use in documents distributed outside the company, the reproduction in a newsletter, etc.

The reading of press content and its reproduction in a strictly private or internal way within in a company, to its staff and agents, while paying the reprographic rights to Repobel don't fall within the scope of the secondary rights.

² The repertoires are available on Copiepresse website (www.copiepresse.be) and Repropress website (www.repropress.be)

³ The tariffs are available on the websites of Copiepresse (www.copiepresse.be), License2Publish (www.license2publish.be) and Repropress (www.repropress.be)

To SCAN press content :

- Belgian French- and German-speaking daily newspapers:
 - Annual number of articles:
- Belgian magazines and free press titles (*):
 - Annual number of articles:
- French newspapers (*):
 - Annual number of articles:
- Luxembourger newspapers:
 - Annual number of articles:

To STORE⁴ press content electronically during more than 3 months in an organized manner :

NB : the storage is limited to 3 months. So :

- If you decide to store press content more than 3 months and to pay the corresponding rights, please fill in the fields here under.
- If you decide to delete these press content (after having printed them out), please mentioned your choice in in the “comments” space.

- Belgian French- and German-speaking daily newspapers:
 - Annual number of articles:
 - Number of people having access:
 - Number of articles available one additional year (and already declared the previous year):.....
 - Number of people having access:
- Belgian magazines and free press titles (*):
 - Annual number of articles:
 - Number of people having access:
 - Number of articles available one additional year (and already declared the previous year):.....
 - Number of people having access:
- French newspapers (*):
 - Annual number of articles:

⁴ « To STORE » means : «to store press content electronically in such a way that it leads to a database similar to the publishers’ one » i.e. when you don’t need to look for articles in the publishers’ archives anymore.

- Luxembourger newspapers:
 - Annual number of articles:

- To SPREAD press content via INTRANET / EXTRANET (whether an internal network or multiple consultations on the platform made available by any dealer of press content) :
 - Belgian daily newspapers:
 - In case of daily Press review (at least 1 press article put on the Intranet/Extranet each day) :
 - ➔ Belgian French- and German-speaking daily newspapers:
 - Daily number of articles:
 - Number of people having access:

 - Number of articles available one additional year (and already declared the previous year):
 - Number of people having access:

 - ➔ Belgian magazines and free press titles (*):
 - Daily number of articles:
 - Number of people having access:

 - Number of articles available one additional year (and already declared the previous year):
 - Number of people having access:

 - In case of Casual spreading (less than 1 press article put on the intranet each day) :
 - ➔ Belgian French- and German-speaking daily newspapers:
 - Annual number of articles:
 - Number of people having access:

 - Number of articles available one additional year (and already declared the previous year):
 - Number of people having access:

 - ➔ Belgian magazines and free press titles (*):
 - Annual number of articles:
 - Number of people having access:

 - Number of articles available one additional year (and already declared the previous year):
 - Number of people having access:

- French newspapers(*):
 - Annual number of articles:
 - Number of people having access:

- Luxembourger newspapers:
 - Annual number of articles:
 - Number of people having access:

To SPREAD press content by E-MAIL (internally or to third people):

- Belgian daily newspapers:
 - In case of daily Press review (at least 1 press article sent by e-mail each day) :

➔ Belgian French- and German-speaking daily newspapers:

- Daily number of articles:
- Number of recipients:

➔ Belgian magazines and free press titles (*):

- Daily number of articles:
- Number of recipients:

➤ In case of Casual spreading (less than 1 press article sent by e-mail each day) :

➔ Belgian French- and German-speaking daily newspapers:

- Annual number of articles:
- Number of recipients:

➔ Belgian magazines and free press titles (*):

- Annual number of articles:
- Number of recipients:

- Luxembourger newspapers:
 - Annual number of articles:
 - Number of recipients:

To SPREAD press content on a WEBSITE :

- Belgian French- and German-speaking daily newspapers :

- Annual number of articles:

- Belgian magazines and free press titles (*):

- Annual number of articles:

- French newspapers:
 - FORBIDDEN

- Luxembourger newspapers:
 - FORBIDDEN

Please mention the url address of the websites concerned by this declaration:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

If you consider that the different categories listed in this declaration are not representative of your activities or if you have any plans for other uses in 2018 or if you do not know to which category you belong, please describe your uses in the “Comments” space below.

(*) For Belgian magazine and free press titles content and French newspaper press content, please mention below the title of the publication concerned by this declaration and for in each case the number of articles reproduced.

Comments:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

I declare the above to be true to the best of my knowledge, 2018.

Signature:

Stamp of the company: